

RYAN HUNTER-REAY

2014 INDIANAPOLIS 500 CHAMPION

2012 INDYCAR SERIES CHAMPION

DRIVER OF THE No. 28 DHL HONDA

BEHIND THE WHEEL

AMERICAN TRADITION

RHR is the 2014 Indianapolis 500 Champion, the first American to win the title since 2006

FOLLOW THE LEADER

Ryan Hunter-Reay is the most successful American driver currently participating in open-wheel competition, with more race wins than all other active American IndyCar drivers combined.

HOT-SHOT ROOKIE

Hunter-Reay won the IndyCar Series Rookie of the Year award in 2007, despite only competing in six of the 17 events. In 2008, RHR took home Indy 500 Rookie of the Year honors after a sixth-place finish.

WELCOME TO THE TEAM

RHR signed to drive for Andretti Autosport in January 2010 and promptly won the prestigious Long Beach Grand Prix, the fourth race of his first season with the team, capturing Andretti Autosport's first victory under the sole ownership of racing legend Michael Andretti.

OFF TO A QUICK START

Hunter-Reay started the 2014 season with a bang, finishing on the podium in four of the first eight races, including wins at the Honda Indy Grand Prix of Alabama and 'The Greatest Spectacle In Racing' the highly coveted Indianapolis 500.
